Mrs. George N. Combs Chosen to Head Woman's City Club

By EDNA JOPLIN

ELECTION of officers Friday afternoon at the Woman's City Club gathering in Ebell Clubhouse resulted in Mrs. George N. Combs being selected to serve as president of the large club for the year 1945-46. She succeeds Mrs. Edwin S. Luther, who presided at the afternoon program and business session.

The new leader has had a wealth of club experience having served for a number of years in various capacities. Others elected according to the report of Mrs. Fred V. Shanley, press chairman, are Mrs. Bertha Una Jones, first vice president and hospitality chairman; Mrs. Frederick H. Mitchell, second vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Gerald Y. Barber, third vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. C. V. Lowery and Mrs. Marble tied for fourth vice president and luncheon chairman; Mrs. B. Fred Pennington, fifth vice president and chairman of groups; Mrs. W. H. Greene, recording secretary; Mrs. Irene P. Edwards, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hazel Reed Weld, financial secretary; Mrs. Mary Ethel Mezger, treasurer; Miss Estle R. Riles, auditor; Miss Julia M. Barry, historian; Mrs. F. L. Barnes, parliamentarian; Mrs. Lucille E. Swenson, federation secretary, and Mrs. Harvey G. Anderson, director.
